Dear colleague:

WTTW National Productions (WTTWN) is proud to offer Proclamation of Hope, an original symphonic concert by Grammy Award-winning pianist & composer Ramsey Lewis about the life and legacy of Abraham Lincoln. This 90-minute multi-media program includes a 22-piece orchestra with vocalist Dee Alexander, and stunning historical images that serve to inspire reflection and hope with the audience.

The concert captures Ramsey's musical style which combines his deep knowledge of jazz along with his passion for gospel and classical music. Composed by Mr. Lewis and scored by Scott Hall, the work honors the life of Abraham Lincoln as the country's sixteenth, and perhaps, greatest president. This extraordinary concert was produced by WTTWN on November 14, 2010 at the Kennedy Center in Washington, DC.

"Some of the Most Eloquent Music of Lewis's Career" –
Howard Reich/Chicago Tribune

"I hope that through my music I inspire people to want to know more about Abraham Lincoln...I hope people experience the inspiration that I felt when writing the music. I want people to leave optimistically thinking about how we can continue to solve the issues in our country as one people." —Ramsey Lewis/Pianist and Composer of Proclamation of Hope.

We hope you will join WTTWN in honoring Lincoln's legacy by airing Proclamation of Hope in your April schedule.

Proclamation of Hope is produced and presented by WTTWN. Fran Harth is VP of Program Development and Nicolette Ferri is producer. The series is distributed by PBS (Plus). Underwritten by Ravinia Festival and AARP, local underwriting is permissible.

Please contact me if you have questions. A fact sheet follows.

Very truly yours,
Regina
